

IWC 2018 Award Winning Sake Tasting

Monday 9th July 2018

18:00-20:15

The Embassy of Japan, 101 Piccadilly, London, W1J 7JT

Admission is free but pre-registration is essential

The Sake Samurai Association and the Embassy of Japan are delighted to invite you to celebrate the finalists of the International Wine Challenge (IWC) 2018 sake competition. At this prestigious annual tasting, guests will have the chance to meet fourteen sake makers in person under one roof.

This year, IWC sake judging was hosted in Yamagata in Japan, and featured 1,639 sake entries, the highest ever recorded at the IWC since it started in 2007. We are pleased to welcome the team of Yamagata local government at this event to give us a special lecture.

Programme

- 17:30 Doors open for registration
- 18:00 Speeches & introduction of sake makers
- 18:20 Presentation by Yamagata prefecture
- 18:30 IWC 2018 Award winning Sake Tasting
- 20:15 Tasting ends

Places are limited for this popular event and early application is recommended. To register your attendance, please email your full name, occupation and email address to sake@ld.mofa.go.jp by latest by 2nd July.

To gain entry to the Embassy on the day, you are kindly requested to bring a photographic identification and a printed copy of the confirmation email, which you will receive from us upon application.

We are all looking forward to welcoming you!
